ARMSTRONG JUNIOR COLLEGE
OF SAVANNAH, GEORGIA

ERNEST A. LOWE, President

May 11, 1938

To the 1938 Graduating Class:

I cannot let you leave the campus without expressing my personal interest in each of you - your spirit is now the rich heritage of the College. My strongest wish is that you will remain loyal to Armstrong and true to its highest ideals.

Your thoughtfulness in dedicating this Volume to the character of the first class well exemplifies what should always be the spirit of the Institution.

I wish each of you a full-measure of success and happiness.

Sincerely,

Ernest A. Lowe

Armstrong Junior College

The history of Armstrong Junior College is already more than a recital of names and dates. Armstrong is an intellectual force directing the lives of its students and a lighthouse in a community which has long sought higher educational leadership for its youth.

Although the college was founded only in 1935, new hope and larger fields of opportunity have already opened to several hundred Savannah men and women—some now in the professional and business life of the city, some who will return after two years of additional training in one of the universities or senior colleges.

Those rendering conspicuous service during the formation of the college have doubtless found satisfaction in its success. As the class of 1938 approaches graduation its members salute those organizations and individuals who have made possible the work of the college, and like the faculty, look forward with enthusiasm to the fine Freshman Class which will undoubtedly enter in September.

MRS. MILLER

It is with regret that we learn of the resignation of Mrs. Dorothy Horton Miller, librarian during Armstrong's first two years.

Probably no one on the faculty worked harder in starting the college than did Mrs. Miller. She had a gigantic task before her in organizing the library of which we are now so proud—a greater task than we can realize. Yet, in all the rush and excitement of those first two years, she found time to make lasting friendships. Those of us who know her, recognize in her a real person as well as an efficient member of the faculty.

We cannot ignore the fact that she has withdrawn from active service among us. Though we shall miss her, we hope that she will continue to feel that she is still a part of us.

We are indeed fortunate in welcoming Miss Lulie Henderson who will permanently fill Mrs. Miller's place. We have already taken her into our fold and are happy that we have so splendid a person to fill the position vacated by one whom we shall always admire and love.

"W. S. B."

William S. Boyd

Rumors are rife around Armstrong that Mr. Boyd will not be back with us next year. His tentative plans are to continue his studies at medical school. We have not been able to confirm these reports as the 'Geechee goes to press, but we would not like to miss this opportunity to express our feelings about him and his fine work among us whether he is to be with us next year or not.

In his three years at Armstrong, Mr. Boyd has made a place for himself not only among the members of the faculty and their families, but particularly among the students who have always found him a loyal and sympathetic friend. There has not been a student in Armstrong in whom he is not intensely interested and whom he has not been willing to help at any time. His good sportsmanship never fails him and, though quick to joke the other fellow, he can always take a joke himself.

We find it impossible to pay just tribute to Mr. Boyd—we all know how futile words are. But, we would like him to know that he will always have a home among us and fill a definite place in our hearts.

The Savannah

The Savannah Playhouse, though primarily a college theatre, welcomes the assistance of its friends outside the college, as well as that of the Armstrong students. It has built up a reputation in Savannah by always giving its patrons a finished performance.

The latest innovation in the Playhouse is the institution of the Service Bureau which supplies play scripts to people and organizations all over this section of the country. That this feature of the Playhouse is a success is attested by the numerous requests for scripts coming from many different places.

The work of the Savannah Playhouse is carried on under the direction of Stacy Keach who is ably assisted by The Theatre Board, a group of competent workers chosen for their efficiency in this field.

MARY PECKHAM KEACH
Director of The Silver Cord

During the 1937-'38 season the Savannah Playhouse produced three successful shows, the first of which was The Girl of the Golden West, presented on November 4th and 5th. This is the familiar melodrama of David Belasco, always a hit.

The second production was The Silver Cord, by Sidney Howard, on January 27th and 28th. It is the story of a selfish, all-consuming mother-love and its effect on the lives of her two sons.

The third and last presentation was The Summoning of Everyman, the old English morality play which was given appropriately at the Lenten season on March 31st and April 1st and 2nd.

The Sociology Round Table

The Sociology Round Table was organized during the winter quarter by members of the fall sociology class who were interested in making a further study of the course.

Meetings were held bi-monthly throughout the remainder of the year with Miss Frances Ennis acting in an advisory capacity. The programs included talks both by outside speakers and by members of the Round Table on slum clearance, sterilization, juvenile delinquency, and the judicial and police problems in Savannah.

Phi Delta Mu

Phi Delta Mu, Armstrong's first sorority, was founded in 1935 by Ophelia Park, Joan Dodd, and Nell McIntire. In naming the sorority, these charter members selected Greek letters beginning with the initials of their surnames.

The purpose of Phi Delta Mu is to encourage the type of girl exemplified by Joan Dodd, to perpetuate her memory, to promote social activities, and to do welfare work for needy people and various organizations.

The sorority has enjoyed many socials, including spend-the-day parties at White Bluff and house parties at Savannah Beach. Mrs. E. A. Lowe is sponsor of Phi Delta Mu.

Alpha Tau Beta Sorority was founded in September, 1937, for the purpose of furthering social and intellectual interests among the students at Armstrong.

This year the sorority entertained with two house parties and a card tournament. An informal dance was given during the fall in the sorority rooms at the college. The Spring Formal, which was preceded by a banquet, proved a great success. This was the first dance of its kind to be given by a sorority at Armstrong. The sorority sponsor is Mrs. F. M. Hawes.

The Coaching Staff

IVEY M. "CHICK" SHIVER, JR.
Head Coach

GEORGE VAN GIESEN

HARRY SHORE

Ivey M. Shiver, Jr., better known as "Chick", head coach of basketball, football, and tennis, may well be proud of his record for the year, 1937-'38. Through his excellent leadership, Armstrong's first football team got off to a flying start and his basketball and tennis teams fought their way to state championships.

The coach himself has a distinguished career behind him at the University of Georgia where he starred at football and baseball. In 1927 he was elected captain of the Georgia football squad and won a birth on a majority of All-American teams. After graduation he entered professional baseball and played one or two seasons in the major leagues. He has also coached at his Alma Mater.

George Van Giesen, assistant football coach, also played at the University of Georgia and he, too, was a player of great ability.

Harry Shore, alumnus of Clemson College, was a great aid to Coach Shiver in the capacity of line coach and also as assistant basketball coach. With a brilliant athletic record in his home town as well as at Clemson, Coach Shore, along with Coach Van Giesen, was invaluable in turning out a successful football team for Armstrong's first attempt in this field.

Football

Center row: CRANMAN, TOOTLE, STOUGHTON, POPPELL, BRADY, WOODWARD, CHAPMAN, BROWN, BOYD, ROSSITER, MILLER (Manager).

Front row: TYRE, DAVIS, CRIBB, GLASS, DeLoACH, HART, STOKES, COOLEY, LOPEZ.

In its first effort to establish an intercollegiate football team, Armstrong Junior College came through with flying colors. Although this first team did not win all the games on its schedule, it left no doubt that a bigger and better season is in prospect for next season. It has the makings of a real football power in this section.

This first season showed the Shiver-men to be a cause of great concern to many of their opponents. With many of the old crowd back next season and with strong players filling in the empty positions, the 'Geechees are likely to cause much more trouble than last season.

The record for the 1937 season is as follows:

A. J. C.	6	G. M. C.	19
A. J. C.	8	S. G. C.	0
A. J. C.	6	Tech "B"	6
A. J. C.	27	S. H. S.	6
A. J. C.	13	Gordon M. C.	20
A. J. C.	14	Belmont	35
A. J. C.	14	S. G. T. C.	20

Basketball

Full of the spirit it takes to make a winning club, the Armstrong basketball boys fairly galloped away to the state basketball championship.

Following the brilliant playing of the "first five", Captain Jack McLaughlin, alternate-Captain Arthur Cranman, "Buck" Stevens, Melvin Kiley, and Owen Stoughton, the Armstrong team couldn't be stopped, although the boys got off to a rather slow start. But the Shiver basketekers couldn't be downed for long and they came out of a slump to "bring home the bacon" to the Alma Mater.

With a team full of stars, it is impossible to pick out the true champ of the team, but "Buck" Stevens won a berth on the all-star tournament team, and Cranman and McLaughlin also received honorable mention.

The scoring in the State Junior College Basketball Tournament is as follows:

A. J. C.	42	West Georgia	25
A. J. C.	26	North Georgia	19
A. J. C.	33	Middle Ga.	30
A. J. C.	22	G. M. C.	18

BARRAGAN

SANDERS

SOLOMONS

Led by Captain Frank Barragan, the Armstrong golf team has prospects for a bright future. Although they have had no matches as the 'Geechee goes to press, the boys are ready, willing, and able to enter competition at any time.

Barragan, number one man, who was also captain of last year's team, shoots consistently in the seventies. He has won several championships in Savannah and shows great promise as a leading golfer. The excellence of his game is due in part to his long drives, and he is especially good in his short game.

John Simpson, who takes number two position, is a former high school golfer and plays a steady game. He is a tough opponent and welcome partner in any match.

Placing third is Philip Solomons, who has just become interested in golf and, judging from his present form, is a rising star.

Frank Sanders is a Northern lad who is rapidly gaining experience on our Southern plains and is on the road to developing a game that will be hard to beat.

Tennis

JOHN TYRE
Men's City Champion
1935-'36-'37

For the second consecutive year, the Armstrong Junior College tennis team, led by the brilliant playing of Captain John Tyre, won the tennis tournament of the Athletic Association of Junior Colleges. The 'Geehee net men won four consecutive matches, losing only two out of a possible twenty-eight points.

The pre-tournament season was one of great success also, the team losing only one match in the course of play, with a total of eight victories. The record of the conference tournament is as follows:

A. J. C.	4	Young Harris	0
A. J. C.	4	North Georgia	2
A. J. C.	4	Ab'ham Baldwin	0
A. J. C.	4	South Georgia	0

EVELYN NATHAN
Women's City Champion
1936-'37

Like the boys' team, the girls' tennis team is made up of fast, experienced players. Captain and number one player, Evelyn Nathan, stars for the girls who place, after Miss Nathan, as follows: Margaret Dutton, Elizabeth Miller, Annie Guill, and Betty Bainbridge. Misses Nathan and Dutton team up for the number one doubles team forming a strong opposition of much experience, for they have played together since they starred in high school tennis.
